FINANCIAL DEPRESSION.

Our American cousins appear from our side of the line to be in anything but an enviable or satisfactory condition. The large number of bank failures that have every few days startled the monetary world like shocks of earthquake, have caused devastation and woe all along the line. The financial straits resulting therefrom cannot but have a deleterious effect upon the commerce, and business of that famous country. But "it is an ill wind that blows no one any good" and the unreliable condition of the American Banks may to some extent materially assist the Dominion of Canada, for it is as asserted on reputable authority, that American investors are patronizing the Canadian Banks, which we are proud to state have with one solitary exception, stood the financial strain because of its reputedly superior basis of management. Whether the present monetary crisis has caused the unprecedented drop in the price of grain it may not be our province to determine, but according to our way of thinking, it augurs ill for the agricultural community. The bulls and the bears of the Chicago corn exchange have been for the last few days like the thermometer in winter up to zero some days, and next day probably away down past zero. One thing at any rate this must teach the average farmer; which many are either slow or reluctant to acknowledge, that it is unsafe to place all the eggs in one basket, but more successful and safe to devote more time to the production of farm yard produce and the breeding and rearing of stock. Although the present cattle embargo make the outlook in this direction somewhat unsatisfactory and unproductive, yet the Manitoba farmers are a sanguine people, and if they lose one year—either by hail, frost or sun, they are ever hopeful, and taken as a class they are surely as prosperous and contented as the same class in any other portion of the British Empire.

SWINDLING SCHEMES.

The Home Knowledge Association which secured fifty or sixty members here last fall at $15.00 each, has suspended business. We are not aware that any of those who joined the society have received anything more than the sales except at regular merchant's rates. During last fall and the early part of the winter the agents of the association must have secured thousands of members. Money was no object, votes at three and six months, were freely taken which induced many to give in their names who otherwise would not have done so. The scheme has only held together long enough to have all these notes collected. In these cases as in most other of a like kind it is those who can least afford the money who have been induced to part with it. Regular dealers were abused as being sharpers, charging enormous profits and taking advantage of the consumer in every possible manner. Councils should impose a heavy tax on all agents of those sham concerns. It would not hurt if a few genuine institutions be taxed if by so doing the bogus ones are caught. Several councils have passed by laws and taken the necessary steps to have them rigidly enforced, to compel all outside, who come into the place to make money, to pay fair proportion of the public expense and the sooner all do so, will it be better for the regular trade and their customers.

A little over a year ago a Building and Loan organization struck town and by fair promises by only tongue agents, had a local board formed, several hundred dollars worth stock subscribed for, in all cases first payment made on said stock and in a few cases second and third payment secured, but in no have the fair promises been carried out.

There is something radically wrong with our laws with respect to this form of plundering the public. No attempt is made to return value for the money taken.

Why the well-to-do persons should be allowed to fleece the public without rendering themselves amenable to taxes and the justice that would be meted to an ordinary citizen if caught in like dealing is inexcusable unless it be that too many of the farmers in the cities are themselves interested financially in the successful manipulation of these schemes.—Birdie Eye-Witness.

FRENCH WEEDS.

Amos B. Pardy, Riverside farm Dakota, gives an interesting, and what seems plausible, experience in destroying French-weed on his farm. The first year he summer-fallowed the land in June, and next spring sowed it in barley. The crop, although hampered considerably by French-weed was a fair one. It ripened early and as soon as harvesting, in the middle of August, he started to plow the ground. The next spring he sowed it with oats, a bushel and a half to the acre. When the seeds came up the French-weed, which had hitherto taken first possession of the field, showed signs of weakness, and the oats soon covered it out of sight. The following fall he plowed it the first thing again, with the result above stated. Mr. Pardy thinks French-weed can be destroyed in all cases this way if it is worked right. He has only missed one crop, the year he summer-fallowed, and after that the yield was average good. He thinks that in some cases it may take longer than others, according to the ground and season, but that a continual process of this kind will clear the ground without fail.—Nor-West Farmer.

HARVESTING WHEAT.

At a recent meeting of the Fish Creek Alberta, Agricultural Society Mr. D. McLean, of Calgary, discussed the proper time to harvest the wheat crop. He said the great trouble with the crop of last year was that it had been allowed to get too ripe before being cut. This gave it a worse color, a crunch thicker bran, and also the tendency to shiver the grain. Mr. McLean strongly advised farmers to cut their grain when it is in the dough, a week or ten days before it is dead ripe, and let it stand in the shock until it hardens. By this means frost and storm will be avoided, the grain will be brighter and heavier and give a better yield of flour. To prevent the soft grain from becoming hardened too suddenly by the sun, the shock should be properly capped with sheaves and the expenditure of the farmers present was that if the tops of the cap sheaves were laid towards the west they would remain on, but if the butts were placed in this position they would be sure to blow away by the wind.—N.W. Farmer.

ROBBERS FIRE THE COLD STORAGE BUILDING.

Chicago, Aug. 3.—Evidence of a startling nature concerning the Cold Storage warehouse fire, was taken by the grand jury today. The witness who gave this startling testimony was John J. Duggan, formerly a Stony Island avenue saloon-keeper and the man who first told of the looting of the robbers after the store fire to the building. He was flushed and excited with the testimony he had undergone, but he had made a clean breast of it. According to Mr. Duggan there were 150 men concerned in the conspiracy, and he declared that he had given the names to the grand jury. He said that from the opening of the Exposition, right up to the time of the fire, goods were stolen or at least removed from the cold storage warehouse by the wagon load. The wagons were express wagons generally, though he had known of water carts going out, the gates with tanks filled with hams, bottles of wine and other stock.

"Who removed these goods?" was asked.

"Employees of the cold storage warehouse and a gang that lives on Stony Island avenue, just outside the grounds."

"Did you give evidence that would implicate criminally the person who removed the goods?"

"Yes, there will be a sensation when this whole thing came out. There are about 150 implicated. I have given the names to the jury."

More witnesses in regard to the affair will be called to-morrow.

A TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.

One of the most peculiar accidents that has yet occurred on the C. P. R. took place last week down the line, says the Port Arthur Herald. A young lad about 10 of age was engaged in the act of "pitching" a flat car forward with a long staff, when he was struck by the rear of the train. He was hurled about 100 feet, and just as he did so the bar slipped off the rail and wedged itself against a tie. At the same moment a beam underneath the car caught his back and pushed him forward against the crowd-bar, impaling him in such a manner that the bar was passed clear through his body and into the ground. The steel passed just over his hip bone and grazing it on its way through. Notwithstanding the horrible agony which he must have endured the boy stood the ordeal of having the bar pulled out of his body without a murmur. He was carried to Conductor Lawrence's caboose, where wounds were dressed as well as possible. Mr. Lawrence and a doctor was telegraphed for from St. Charles. During the whole of this time he retained consciousness, and winced only when the doctor was probing the wound for pieces of cloth. He was brought up to Port Arthur and taken to St. Joseph's hospital, where he is doing well under the good doctors' careful nursing, with every chance of pulling safely through.

Calgary Tribune: At the Fish Creek fair prizes were offered for the greatest collection of gopher tails, and it was found that one boy had something over 1,100, next 831, and a third something over 600. This shows how large a number of these pests can be destroyed. If the boys go to work in earnest about it, the directors of the society recognize the importance of having the animals killed off, and for this purpose they have started a fund to give cash prizes to every boy who will begin the slaughter of robbers.

The harvest is coming apace. Farmers have a beaming face. Prairie fires run a race. The ripening wheat fields to menace. The raging heat does not abate. The rain we want is very late. The garden's in a shrivelled state. And all we do is wait and wait.

Miss Buckingham has returned from her visit to Winnipeg.

A number of local items are unavoidably crowded out this week.

Mr. H. H. Goulter, barrister, of Virden, spent Saturday last in town.

The gravel men and train have completed their work here and left.

A small shower of rain last night just washed the dust of the plants.

Mr. Harrison is putting up a frame house north-east of Richhill Avenue.

Miss March and Miss Rowsell left on Saturday last for Aurora, Ontario.

Haying is in full swing now, and hay stacks are popping up like mushrooms on a wet day.

A social will be held in the Methodist church on Monday evening next in connection with the Epworth League.

A congregational meeting of the Presbyterian church was held on Tuesday evening last for the appointment of two elders.

The ADVOCATE congratulates the hardy merchant on the appearance of his fourth boy.

One of the lights in Mr. Broadley's hardware store received a fatal warp by the wind on Monday last.

Single fare tickets to the World's Fair from Manitoba points are now being issued, good return on first or second Friday following date of issue.

Yesterday's Free Press says: John Middleton, of Elkhorn, has been appointed a justice of the peace for the province.

Mr. Stewart, partner in the firm of Coombs & Co., returned a few days ago from a tour around the world, and is now staying at the Mammoth store in the absence of his partner.

The C. P. R. will run three harvest excursions from the eastern provinces this fall leaving Marquette points on Aug. 31 and September 4, and returning to Quebec stations on the following days.

An open meeting of R. T. of T. will be held in the Purveyors' Hall on Tuesday evening next, to commence at 8 o'clock. Recitation, singing, etc., and addresses by Rose, Fortune and Talbot.

Mr. J. Broadley and Mr. and Mrs. Coombs left on Monday morning for the World's Fair. They expect to be away for two weeks. We trust they may have a good time.

Rev. R. G. Stevenson preached at Virden on Sunday last, and administered the Holy Sacrament. The service at Elkhorn was sung by Mr. King, who is officiating at Virden until the return of the pastor.

The wheat is ripening rapidly and is badly needing rain. Many binders are clanging their agricultural notes on the summer air before our next issue and some fields are already cut. Mr. Little cut a field of oats a week ago.

Prairie fires were raging on Sunday and Monday last about three or four miles north of the town. Assisted by a strong west wind it soon developed into a fire of large dimensions, and committed much damage. Many farmers lost hay by the fire.

About twenty-five Elkhorn people took in the union picnic at Brandon on Tuesday. We would be pleased to give our readers a short account of the day's proceedings and the Experimental Farm, but time and space will not permit.

An Indian princess will shortly be seen on the London stage in the person of the Princess Ahmadi, belonging to the royal house of Delhi. Queen Victoria some time since bestowed the title Lady All on the mother of the princess, together with a pension of $200 a year. Malame Cellini has had this young lady's voice under her control.—Free Press.

The Commercial says: In a couple of months the Canadian Pacific railway will be running through trains between St. Paul and the coast via the "Soo" line, which connects with the main line west of Regina. This road will be opened some time between the 1st and 15th of September. When the rail is laid to the boundary on the American side the Canadian Pacific railway will take their tourist traffic to St. Paul via the Souris branch and Estevan until the line is completed between Estevan and Pasqua. They will be able to carry out this proposed arrangement some time next month. This will make them entirely independent of the Great Northern, who have been causing them some little inconvenience by refusing to haul tourist cars to and from St. Paul.

See the new advertisements of W. McLeod, blacksmith, S. Hill & Co., Chemists, W. J. Taggart, blacksmith, J. Thier, painter, and the change in Thomas & Mowat's.

The following appeared in the Virden Chronicle from the Boston correspondence: Mr. McDougall's new hall was opened last week by the Elkhorn Concert company who gave a very enjoyable serenade concert with numerous instrumental selections. The fortunate people who attended were surprised at the excellence of some of the pieces, especially the piccolo solos.

The present dressmaker's service of balloons, skydiving, etc., is a thing that is well up in Scripture. Quotations, was denounced as long ago as the time of Ezekiel that prophet having uttered the solemn warning: "Then saith the Lord God, woe to the women who sew the pillows to the armholes." The doubling can be stated by turning to Ezekiel, xiii, 18.

It was a matter of conjecture for some minutes on Friday evening last as to whether the Indian boy's pony would collapse or Morley Gibson's harness shop. The pony made a dart from the town pump, attached to a water cur, and came in violent contact with the harness shop, and after a few minutes wild scamper he was brought to time and quietly returned to the pump to resume his drink.

The Salvation Army opened up an attack on the powers of darkness at Elkhorn on Friday evening last in the Foresters' Hall. Two Salvationists from McCombs conducted the service, and there was a full house. The usual prayer experience and musical exercises were in vogue, accompanied by the big drum. It is their intention to gather in their recruits, of which there are several in town and district, and have their meetings regularly.

As a rule, the editor gets ten kicks to "one" in the mail. In all the trash he is called upon to read the words of approbation are in the minority. There is generally some one who could do the thing in hand better. No doubt you could do better yourself. The man doesn't live who couldn't beat an editor running a paper; the editor knows that; he is only running it because you haven't time, so don't let that deter you from speaking an occasional good word for him. If you speak ill of him he's sure to hear of it and although not revengeful he may get even with you some day.—Bitter Eye-Witness.

This is how Mr. Labouchere would do it. Speaking at Virden a few days ago he said: "Home rule" was not, in a certain sense, either a Tory or Radical measure. He looked upon it as a reasonable, common-sense way Ireland should be governed by the Irish people.

When the House of Lords had already announced that they intended to throw out the bill. There could be no objection to people calling themselves dukes, marquises, or earls, but when these people attempted to have everything their own way it was time to protest. If the bill where thrown out, he was not in favor of it being brought up again, next session. That would be like getting a slap on one cheek and then asking for one on the other. What should be done in such a case was a question to be decided by the house of lords should be abolished, and go to the country on that resolution.—Free Press.

We very much regret to record the demise of Mr. J. McLeod, who, two weeks ago, was taken to the Brandon Hospital. He was suffering from a tumor on the brain about the size of a plum, and it appears that after taking his dinner on Sunday afternoon last he lay down on his bed and expired in about two minutes. His remains arrived on Sunday evening, and were left in the Presbyterian church over night, from whence they were removed on the following day to the Elkhorn cemetery; where they were interred by the Rev. Mr. Fortune surrounded by a large crowd of sorrowing friends. He was a native of Edinburgh, Scotland, and has been farming south of here for several years. He was about thirty years of age, and was highly respected as an industrious, good natured citizen, and the sorrowing friends receive our sincerest condolence in their severe bereavement. He had only been ill about a month, and his death was as sudden as no immediate danger was anticipated. His brother-in-law in this country, while his widowed mother lives in Scotland.

QUERIES.

Is there any law in the County of Dennis regarding cruelty to animals? If there is, why is it not brought before the notice of the well-informed boy who drives a pair of skins from near the "pigsticker." Do you want to buy a load of wood?

Are Jimmy and George going to open up opposition to the salmon fisheries of the Fraser river.

Did Whiskers find it cool enough on the roof of the restaurant on the night of the "bad."

Does a man who sleeps in a stable necessarily show more of the animal than his neighbor?

Did John expect to be served up as frozen corned beef after being in the ice house all night?

A friend asked a passer by the other day who that fine looking gentleman in Grandpa was clerking in the store.

LIPPENTOTT.

The weather is still dry, the hot winds of Sunday has injured the crops considerably.

There was a small tornado on Wednesday night, throwing things around in good style.

Mr. David Taylor has purchased a fine team of horses from Simpson Bros., Virden.

Mr. A. Johnson has also purchased a fine driving horse.

Miss Nellie Simpson has not yet returned from Brandon Hospital her case being anticipated.

Mr. S. Greenwood who was hurt by his team running away some time ago is still confined to his house.

Mr. W. Bar is the proudest man on the prairie. It is a daughter.

Councillor Lund is preparing to build a new barn on 36, 19, 32. He has the lumber on the spot.

Mr. D. Johnson harvested a small field of oats last week.

Mrs. J. Montgomery, of Moosomin, has been visiting friends at the "Pipes" on.

Mr. T. Clark, our genial postmaster, who was called in last week, has got established up to his usual height, 6 ft. 4 in.

Mr. Harry Parker has purchased a threshing outfit. Give Harry a chance.

Harvesting will be general by Aug. 22.

Mr. J. Diamond preached in the Lippentott public hall last Sunday afternoon. He is trying to teach the people's spiritual things as well as political.

We appreciate Mrs. Grundy's kindness but think the lady is a little inquisitive.

Put this in woman's nature. We pity the Editor if he has to answer all Mrs. Grundy's questions.

THE MUNRO CASE.

GRANTLEY, OCT. 7. The interest in the case of Mr. Munro, of which mention was made in a despatch from here last week, rapidly increases as his improvement in health progresses.

As a wise man should do, Mr. Munro did not say anything about his trial of Dodd's kidney pills for the dropsy which afflicted him, until he had found that good would result from their use.

Now that he has satisfied himself and others of this, beyond the shadow of a doubt, he is loud in his praises of the remedy. In answer to the enquiries that have poured in upon him about his health, Mr. Munro answers: "I am better than I have been for three years, and the credit is due to Dodd's kidney pills."

This case and others prove that these pills are, by all odds, the most wonderful remedy of the age.

London, Aug. 7.—Lord Roseberry said yesterday: "We were never war with France a week ago than at any time since Waterloo."

Notice is hereby given that a vote of the owners of property in townships 11 and 12 in Range 23, and townships 10, 11, 12, in Range 23 will be taken for or against By-Law No. 188 of the said rural municipality of Wallace, being a By-law to raise $1,000 by the sale of debentures, for the purpose of bonifying any person or company, who will erect in the township of Elkhorn a grist mill, capable of manufacturing at least 100 barrels of flour per day. The debentures will be made payable in twenty yearly payments of $20 each with interest at 6 per cent, to be paid on the first day of February in each year, after the said By-law takes effect.

The date of the taking of the said vote is Saturday the 24th day of June, A. D. 1883. The poll will be opened at the hour of 10 a.m., and will be kept open until the hour of 5 o'clock p. m. on that date.

There will be one polling place only, viz., at Broadley's Hall, Elkhorn.

A. G. McDougall, returning officer and clerk of the rural municipality of Wallace. Dated at Wallace, this 23rd day of May, A. D. 1883.

That a vote, having been taken on the 24th June, 1883, and the By-law carried by a vote of 144 for By-law, to against By-law 5.

All persons are hereby required to take notice that any one desirous of applying to have such By-law or any part thereof quashed, must make his application for that purpose to a Judge of the Court of Queen's Bench sitting in Chambers, within three months next after the publication of this notice once a week for three successive weeks in the Elkhorn Advocate, or he will be too late to be heard in that behalf.

A. G. MCDUGALL, Secretary Treas. of the rural Municipality of Wallace. Dated at Elkhorn, this 22nd day of July, A. D. 1883.
